

Regarding changes to FM broadcasting. K-Love is a station I can listen to without worry. In the Reno/Sparks area, most radio stations have morning talk shows that are not appropriate for kids and I do not appreciate the foul language and "adult" discussions often talked about. Please keep a station on the air that does not require constant monitoring of the content, that can be listened to by children and young adults. Thank you.